

Privacy Policy

MarketCrew Ltd provides AI automation, data integration, and revenue system design services. In delivering these services, we may process information on behalf of our clients and users of our website.

We only collect information that you choose to provide when contacting us, such as your name, email address, company details, and any information included in your message.

This information is used to respond to enquiries, deliver services, and improve our systems.

As part of our work, we may use third-party platforms such as CRM systems and financial tools to deliver our services. Any data processed within these systems remains under the control of the client.

We take reasonable technical and organisational measures to protect information handled within our systems.

We do not sell personal data and only process information as necessary to deliver our services or comply with legal obligations.

We may update this policy from time to time to reflect changes in our services.

If you have any questions, you can contact us at connect@marketcrew.io.
